

Resources for Persons with Disabilities

CAREER PLANNING

EDUCATION

JOBS

Want to Go to Post-Secondary?

If you're looking for help planning for post-secondary education, go to alis.alberta.ca/disabilities to find the Transition Planning Guide as well as a PowerPoint presentation, Achieving the Dream - Transition to Post-Secondary Education for Students with Disabilities.

Check out the ALIS videos to meet five motivated students with disabilities from across Canada who each have a post-secondary education and training goal. These inspirational videos showcase how students with disabilities successfully moved into post-secondary education and training.

Find Great Articles at alis.alberta.ca/tips

- Accommodations - Working With Your Disability
- Disclosure: What to Say About Your Disability - and When
- Employers: Hiring Persons with Disabilities - A Sound Business Decision
- Employers: Hiring Persons with Disabilities - Getting Started
- Finding Work Opportunities as a Person With a Disability
- Handling Challenges: Dealing With Things You Can't Change
- Human Rights and You: What Can Employers Ask?
- Job Interviews for Persons With Disabilities
- Plan for Success - A Tip for Job Seekers with Disabilities
- Succeeding in the Workplace as a Person With a Disability
- Talking About Invisible Disabilities

Planning Your Career?

Go to alis.alberta.ca/personswithdisabilities for help with creating a career plan, planning your education and finding work. You'll also find information on disclosure, accommodations and assistive services and technology.

What Works: Career-Building Strategies for People from Diverse Groups

Strengthen your skills in counselling diverse populations with this online career resource. What Works includes statistics, terminology, history and legislation related to persons with developmental disabilities, persons with mental health disabilities and persons with physical disabilities. Download What Works at alis.alberta.ca/publications.

FOR COUNSELLORS

Disability Related Employment Supports (DRES)

DRES provides job search, workplace and educational supports to persons with disabilities and employers accommodating the needs of workers with disabilities. Learn more at humanservices.alberta.ca/dres.

alis.alberta.ca
CAREER PLANNING • EDUCATION • JOBS
» Make the most of your future

Alberta
Government