Calgary

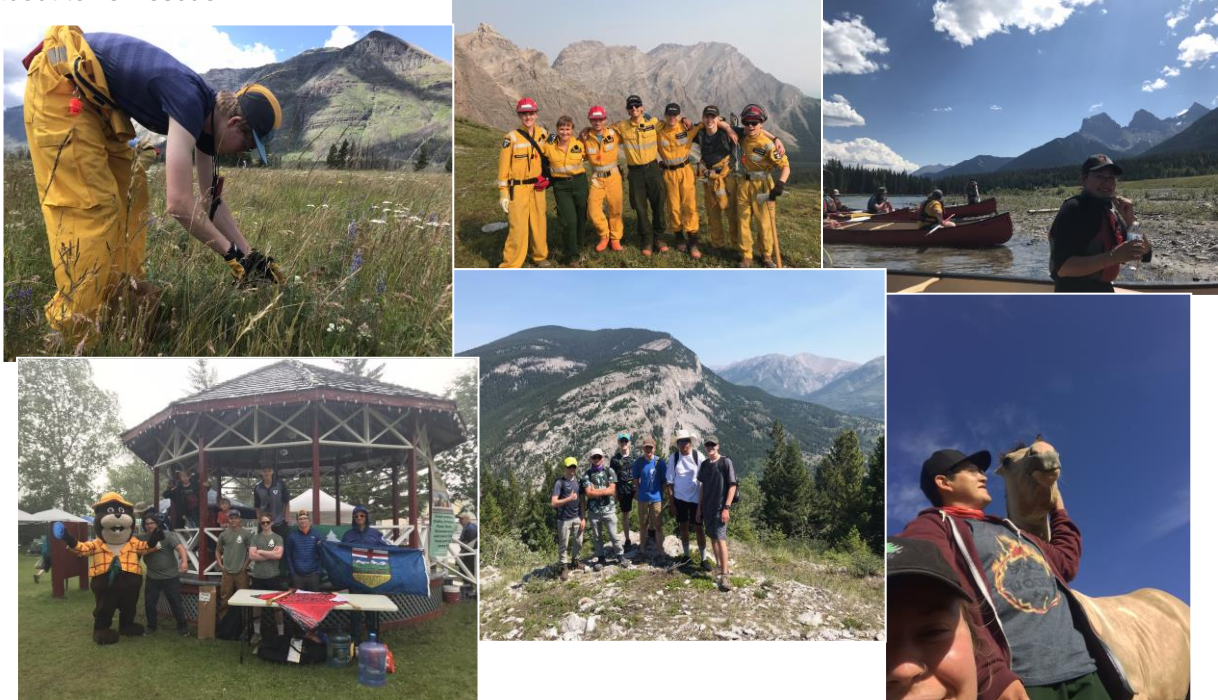

JFR Base Name: The Livingstone Gap.

Distance from Nearest Town/City: 30 to 40 min. drive on a main gravel road to Coleman (MD of the Crownest Pass)

Brief Description: We have two JFR bunkhouses – Leader and member. The Gap has beautiful scenery and is nestled in the mountains. A great river close by for fishing and relaxing, made up disc golf course, fully stocked gym. Great hiking in the area.

Top 5 JFR Crew Projects

- Maintenance on the Great Divide Trail.
- Our Culture Camp with Mike Bruishedhead.
- Various jobs in Waterton National Park. - Beautiful place to work and camp for a couple days.
- Maintaining buildings and Firesmart work at the Jumping Pound demonstration Forest.
- Hiking to a mountain Lookout to help with projects and also spending a day at Porcupine tower learning about tower rescue.
