Background Information: Junior Forest Ranger (JFR) crew members will learn skills and work in a remote camp for seven weeks. The mandate of the program encompasses the fields of forestry, natural resource management, environmental science, and youth development. Crews will expand their awareness of our natural resources through exposure to work projects, educational opportunities, traditional practices, and wilderness adventure. Members live with their crew 24/7 for 7 weeks. Crew members are team players, independent, physically fit, patient and respectful.

Please answer the following questions or attach a letter and send it directly to

WF.JFR-Alberta@gov.ab.ca

- 1. In your opinion, explain to what extent the applicant has shown interest in natural resources and/or outdoor recreation.
